Error in amount on check	If you think the amount of your stimulus check is incorrect, you can claim the additional amount on your 2020 tax return.	https://www.aarp.org/money/taxes/info-2020/irs-timeline-to-send-stimulus-funds.html
Stimulus check sent to an account you don't recognize	It could be because you chose to have a refund anticipation loan, or because you had your refund loaded onto a debit card provided by your tax preparer. In some cases, your stimulus check may have gone to the bank account associated with those refund settlement products, as the IRS calls them. If so, the bank will reject the stimulus payment, and the IRS will mail a check to the most recent address it has on file.	https://www.aarp.org/money/taxes/info-2020/irs-timeline-to-send-stimulus-funds.html
Check lost in mail/misdirected direct deposit	IRS says it will mail a letter to your address 15 days after a payment was issued. If you receive the letter but never received a payment (or the payment was in the wrong amount), the IRS lists a toll-free phone number to call: 800-919-9835.	https://www.aarp.org/money/taxes/info-2020/irs-timeline-to-send-stimulus-funds.html
Reasons you aren't eligible for a stimulus payment	someone claims you as a dependent, you don't have a social security number, you filed certain tax return forms (info in link), you are in jail, income too high (info in link)	https://www.aarp.org/money/taxes/info-2020/economic-stimulus-payment-status.html
What to do if you receive a stimulus check for a deceased family member	Return the entire Payment unless the Payment was made to joint filers and one spouse had not died before receipt of the Payment, in which case, you only need to return the portion of the Payment made on account of the decedent. This amount will be $1,200 unless adjusted gross income exceeded $150,000.
